God of holiness, your glory is proclaimed in every age: as we rejoice in the faith of your saints, inspire us to follow their example with boldness and joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

FIRST READING: Revelation 21:1-6a

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

GOSPEL READING: John 11:32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

NOTICES

Posters/Flyers We have some posters and flyers advertising our Christmas Fair and Christmas Services. If you can take some and put them up or post them locally, we would be very grateful. Please see the wardens.

The Christmas Fair: Saturday 17th November in The Sala, Corçá. 10.00-3.00pm We would appreciate any donations of raffle prizes; bottles for the tombola stall, old jewellery and good quality accessories for the vintage stall. Please let Rachel or Sharon have any donations.

We would also greatly appreciate any help in setting up on the day and tidying away afterwards.

Concert & Supper - update. December 8th 7.00pm

Unfortunately, due to illness, this concert has had to be cancelled. We will try and reorganise in January / February. However, you would be most welcome to come to Church House for the simple supper - chilli con carne and rice. Please let Rachel know if you would like to come.

Bishop Robert's Advent Appeal is to enable St. Andrew's Moscow to equip their church with a kitchen. We can let you have more details or check our website. We will tell you more in advent.

Due to data protection, we cannot always insert telephone numbers and addresses on here. Please feel free to email/WhatsApp Rachel or Sharon for details of events.

Visit our website for more information on the Anglican Church in the Costa Brava; for an online version of this notice sheet and for directions to the churches.

We are completely self-funded and if possible, would appreciate a donation towards the ministry in this chaplaincy. Please speak to the wardens.
